

Project Management Office Services

Maximize project success rates through effective management policies, processes, and methods. We can help.

Legacy systems needing integration or replacement. Constituents needing seamless interaction between services and systems. Policy changes impacting organizational direction. No matter the project scope, project management can be a complicated process, especially for large organizations. A project management office (PMO) can help organizations meet their goals by effectively managing projects in a timely, cost-effective manner.

With over 35 years of experience, Public Consulting Group (PCG) is a leader in providing PMO services to public sector agencies across the country. We can help you develop and implement project management policies, processes, and methods that drive efficiency and maximize value.

How can PCG help?

PCG's PMO services can help you:

- ✔ Govern effectively. We right-size your organization's governance structure to ensure accountability at all levels.
- ✔ Cut costs. We introduce process rigor and accountability to drive efficiency and maximize resource value.
- ✔ Increase agility. We assess your team's readiness for self-driving project work to cut down on unnecessary steps while still managing performance.
- ✔ Break silos. We establish feedback loops and information exchanges between teams to facilitate holistic growth and an organization-centered approach.
- ✔ Make data-driven decisions. We report on all projects, no matter what lifecycle they follow, to give you better control of the performance and value of your teams.
- ✔ Mitigate risks. We proactively manage and mitigate risks to ensure transparent communication and messaging, no matter how difficult the message may be.
- ✔ Drive organizational consistency. We establish processes and plans that systemize your team's projects to drive efficiency and ensure consistent reporting and value.

Why choose PCG?

PCG has a proven track record of helping agencies across the country develop and implement effective project management policies, processes, and methods. Our experienced team consists of Project Management Professionals (PMP) who are certified by the Project Management Institute (PMI) and experts in the industry's best practices, as prescribed by the PMI's Project Management Body of Knowledge (PMBOK). We understand the nuanced differences between organizations and regions, which is why we will partner with you to develop a customizable solution. In doing so, we can help your agency identify a vision and develop strategies to achieve it.
