

Dr. Angeline Williams-Jackson

Senior Lead Advisor

Dr. Angeline Williams-Jackson is a Senior Advisor and Subject Matter Expert with Public Consulting Group's (PCG) Education practice, specializing in special education leadership, compliance, and systems improvement. She collaborates with state agencies and school districts nationwide to conduct programmatic audits, lead strategic planning, and design inclusive practices. Through professional development and innovative programming, Dr. Williams-Jackson provides strategic thought leadership that drives equity, strengthens compliance, and improves outcomes for students with disabilities.

Expertise

- EDPlan implementation
- Special Education program design and inclusive practices
- IEP quality review
- Change Management
- Systems Improvement
- Compliance and policy alignment
- Strategic Planning
- Employee support and development

Experience

Since joining PCG in 2024, Dr. Angeline Williams-Jackson has led state and district projects, co-authored audit reports, developed staffing analysis tools, and delivered subject matter expertise for PCG's EdPlan solution. With a strong background in special education leadership, she offers practical solutions that strengthen instructional equity, enhance compliance, and improve outcomes for students with disabilities. Known for fostering collaboration and managing change, she is a trusted partner to education leaders nationwide.

Publications

- "Optimizing Staffing in Special Education: Caseload vs. Workload Analysis"
- Blog Post: Back-To-School Solutions-Creative Staffing in the Face of Special Education Shortages
- Inclusive Practices E-Book

Certifications

- Principal as Leader Pk-12-Texas
- Principal 8-12, Missouri
- Special Education Cross Categorical Pk-12, Missouri and Texas
- Self-Contained General Education 1-8-Texas
- Self-Contained General Education 1-6-Missouri

Education

Angeline has a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminology from University of Missouri-St. Louis and a Master of Arts in Criminal Justice Leadership from University of Central Oklahoma-Edmond. She went on to complete her Master of Education in Administration from Park University and Doctor of Education in Education Practice and Social Justice from University of Missouri.

To learn more about PCG Subject Matter Experts, please contact us today.

 (800) 210-6113  publicconsultinggroup.com  AWilliamsJackson@pcgus.com