Hallie Wells is a Senior Consultant at Public Consulting Group (PCG) specializing in early childhood education, child care systems, and workforce development. She partners with states to design and implement initiatives that strengthen child care quality, support providers and educators, and improve outcomes for children and families. Her work includes leading grant and subsidy programs, managing complex statewide projects, developing training curricula and e-learning resources, providing technical assistance, and facilitating stakeholder engagement and strategic planning efforts. Hallie brings expertise in project management, regulatory implementation, professional learning, and business operations to help agencies achieve sustainable system improvements.

Expertise

- Child Care Workforce Development
- Grant, subsidy, and Fiscal Program Administration
- Project Management and Program Implementation
- Stakeholder Engagement and Technical Assistance

Education

Hallie graduated with honors from Willamette University with a master's in business administration. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Christian Education from Biola University.

Experience

Prior to joining PCG in 2016, Hallie Wells built a strong foundation in education and program leadership through roles in both early childhood and K-12 settings. She spent more than five years leading early childhood programs as a licensed child care center director and program director, where she oversaw program operations, staff management, regulatory compliance, and family engagement. She also served as a licensed elementary school teacher in Texas at a Title 1 school, through Teach for America.
